

26 '21

The Ford International Weekly

THE DEARBORN INDEPENDENT

By the Year $1.50

Dearborn, Michigan, August 27, 1921

Single
Copy Ten Cents

Hard Work Only Will Solve Economic Problems

J. W. Alexander, former secretary of Department of Commerce, tells what America must do to help straighten out a tangled universe

Impressions of Europe Three Years After War

Conditions in various countries across the Atlantic as seen by a woman

Current Testimony on the Jewish Question

Breaking the Padlocks of Enforced Silence;

Eyewitnesses Tell Jewish Details

The Town That Hasn't Felt the New Day

Where civic righteousness is unknown, where the saloon thrives and where politics are played in the old-fashioned way

Charles Evans Hughes, The American Premier

A study of the man who handles big questions affecting the nation